Collection

The European Documental Centers are depository libraries of the European Union publications: they receive regularly published book materials (documentary sources) from the E.U. institutions.

Collection specialized on the European Union: official Diaries (series L, series C, series S), legislation and European Communities jurisprudence and publications.

Centers Net

The European Documental Centers form a net created by the European Community members in different countries. Their purpose is to spread information and documentation about European institutions to facilitate knowledge and investigation related to European Union and its policy.
